PARENT'S CODE OF CONDUCT

As a parent, you play a special role in contributing to the needs and development of youngsters. Through your encouragement and good example, you can help ensure that all the boys and girls learn good sportsmanship and self-discipline. In Hillside Field of Faith's league, young people learn to work together, to sacrifice for the good of the team, to enjoy winning, and to deal appropriately with defeat – all while becoming physically and spiritually fit. Best of all, they have fun.

Support your child - Supporting your child by giving encouragement and showing interest in their team is very important. Help your child work toward skill improvement and good sportsmanship in every game. Teach your child that hard work and an honest effort are often more important than victory – that way your child will always be a winner despite the outcome of the game!

Always be positive - Parents serve as role models for their children. Become aware of this and work to be a positive role model. Applaud good plays by your child's team as well as good plays by the opposing team. Support all efforts to remove verbal and physical abuse from youth sports activities.

Remember that your child wants to have fun - Remember that your child is the one playing the sport, not you. It's very important to let children establish their own goals – to play the game for themselves. Take care not to impose your own standards and goals on them. Don't put too heavy a burden on your child to win games. Surveys reveal that 72% of children would rather play for a losing team than ride the bench for a winning team. Children play for the fun of playing.

Reinforce Positive Behavior - Positive reinforcement is the best way to help your child achieve their goals and their natural fear of failure. Nobody likes to make mistakes. If your child does make one, remember it's all part of learning, so encourage your child's efforts and point out the good things your child accomplished.

Don't be a sideline coach or Referee - Coaches and referees are usually parents just like you. They volunteer time to help make your child's youth sports experience a positive one. They need your support too. That means refraining from coaching or refereeing from the sidelines.

Parents Pledge

- I shall set an example of sportsmanship for my child to follow. I shall emphasize team play to my child. I shall show by example respect for coaches, referees, umpires, opposing teams, and other fans. I shall not be a grandstand manager. I shall remember that not everyone can play at one time. I shall not be critical unless I'm willing to work to correct the problem. I shall attend my child's games because it is important to them, they are not young forever. I shall be supportive when my child is successful or when struggling for success. I shall play and practice the skills of the game with my child. I shall be positive and supportive whether the team wins or loses. I shall remember that all managers, coaches, and league officers are volunteers. I shall volunteer whenever possible. I shall retain the perspective that there are no major league scouts in the stands. I shall remember that the game is for the kids.

Remember: good behavior doesn't cost anything!!! However, it does allow the players and other teams to enjoy a great game between kids just for the fun of it.

While on David K Voiles Field of Faith fields, I will: Always be alert for traffic. Not use any profanity. Not play in the parking lots at any time. Not swing bats or throw baseballs at any time within the walkways and common areas. Not throw balls against dugouts, buildings, or backstops. Not throw rocks. Not horseplay in the parking lot or Pavilion at any time. Not climbing fences. Observe ALL posted signs: There is NO SMOKING anywhere on, around, or near the church property or field. Please refrain from smoking during any of our events. If you must smoke, you need to go to your vehicle.
